

Sell a child for sex in California. Get out of prison early.

The following crimes are not considered “violent” under current California law, allowing inmates convicted of these crimes to be released from prison early. Our initiative stops early release by making these crimes violent.

- Human trafficking of a child
- Abducting a minor for prostitution
- Rape by intoxication
- Rape of an unconscious person
- Felony sexual penetration, sodomy, or oral copulation when drugs are used or the victim is unconscious
- Drive by shooting, or shooting, at an inhabited dwelling or vehicle
- Assault with a firearm
- Felony domestic violence
- Felony assault with a deadly weapon
- Serial arson
- Solicitation to commit murder
- Assault with caustic chemicals
- Assault by a caregiver on a child under 8 that could result in death or coma
- Felony assault using force likely to produce great bodily injury
- False imprisonment/taking a hostage when avoiding arrest or to use as a shield
- Assaulting a police officer with anything except a firearm
- Exploding a bomb to injure people
- Felony hate crime
- Any felony where a deadly weapon is used
- Felony use of force or threats against a witness or victim of a crime
- Felony elder or dependent adult abuse
- Any crime requiring lifetime (290) sex offender registration
