Prop. 20 doesn’t change that
Prop. 20 doesn’t change that
Prop. 20 changes that ONLY when the theft is from a repeat/serial offender
Prop. 20 changes that by setting a higher standard for DNA collection on misdemeanor drug possession, theft and domestic violence convictions, helping law enforcement solve more violent crimes and/or exonerate those wrongly accused
Prop. 20 once again makes California’s successful drug courts an integral part of our criminal justice system

Prop. 47
- Raised the theft limit from $450 to $950
- Made drug possession a misdemeanor
- Made petty theft a misdemeanor
- Made drug possession and theft a misdemeanor, weakening DNA collection on “indicator crimes,” which a report issued by Jerry Brown scientifically connected to serial rape and homicide
- Made drug possession and theft a misdemeanor, reducing the use and effectiveness of court-imposed drug addiction programs

Proposition 20
- Prop. 20 doesn’t change that
- Prop. 20 changes that ONLY when the theft is from a repeat/serial offender
- Prop. 20 changes that by setting a higher standard for DNA collection on misdemeanor drug possession, theft and domestic violence convictions, helping law enforcement solve more violent crimes and/or exonerate those wrongly accused
- Prop. 20 once again makes California’s successful drug courts an integral part of our criminal justice system